GLADYS THE FIRST HOME

Speedy Yacht Takes First Beckley Cup Race.

The first race for the Beckley cup was sailed yesterday, the Gladys coming home winner by a comfortable margin in fast time.

The race started at 9:54 a. m., a light easterly breeze prevailing at the time. The Kapolei crossed the line first, 45 seconds after the starting signal. The Hawaii got away a minute after the signal, the Gladys 1 minute 10 seconds after, and La Paloma, last as usual, 2 minutes 15 seconds after.

Heading out of the channel the boats made a pretty picture.

Admiral Beckley, donor of the cup, viewed the start from the Myrtle Boat Club, and was given a hearty cheer by each crew as they passed the boat-house.

After rounding the spar buoy the racers headed for the stakeboat off Diamond Head.

Off the point the Gladys passed the Kapolei, the rest of the yachts being well up.

The boats turned the first stake in the following order:

Gladys, 10:39; Kapolei, 10:40; La Paloma, 10:42:50; Hawaii, 10:43:30.

Shortly before rounding, the Hawaii carried away her jib, thus compelling her to retire from the race after making a fine showing.

The yachts now set their course for Barber's Point, and having a free wind, all light sails were set. La Paloma sent up her balloon jib, fisherman's staysail and main topsail quickly, and soon began to overhaul the flying leaders, who were going down the course like scared cats.

Off the Bell Buoy La Paloma passed the Gladys.

The time at the Barber's Point stake was: La Paloma, 12:50; Gladys, 1:00; Kapolei, 1:06.

The boats then started on the last leg of the triangular course—a dead beat to windward. The Gladys and Kapolei were on their best point of sailing and soon passed La Paloma.

The race ended at the Bell Buoy with the Gladys finishing first, Kapolei second and La Paloma third. Time:

Gladys, Captain Petrie, start, 9:54; finish, 4:13:25; elapsed time, 6 hours 19 minutes 25 seconds.

Kapolei, Captain Renton, 9:54; finish, 4:24; elapsed time, 6 hours 30 minutes.

La Paloma, Captain Macfarlane, start, 9:54; finish, 4:33:45; elapsed time, 6 hours 39 minutes 45 seconds.

The distance of the course was forty mile and the time made was remarkably good.

W. H. McInerney had charge of the race, the arrangements for which were all that could be desired.

HE EMULATES CAPTAIN WEBB

Burgess failed in his third attempt to swim the Channel recently, but will make another attempt in the future, says the London Mail.

He entered the water at Cape Gris-Nez at 5:22 a. m., and struck out with his powerful left-arm stroke, twenty-six to the minute. At the end of the first hour he had left the shore 2 1/2 miles behind and was passing through a shoal of mackerel.

Soon after 10 o'clock seasickness overtook Burgess. At 10:30 the Dover lightship could be seen by the aid of glasses, and it was calculated that by swim and drift ten miles had been covered. Throughout the morning he went well, and at 12:30 the Admiralty Pier was about 14 1/2 miles in a direct line. The flood tide took him up Channel.

About 2 o'clock Burgess felt somewhat stiff, and after consultation with Pilot McKee, his position being a bad one, he decided to leave the water, which he did at 2:26.

Burgess covered by swim and drift twenty-one miles in nine hours and four minutes.

SPORT NEWS FROM ENGLAND

LONDON, October 6.—It is not impossible that there will be another "American invasion" of the English turf next year. Rumors are current that W. K. Vanderbilt, James R. Keene, Perry Belmont, Harry Payne Whitney and several other millionaire lovers of the race horse from the other side contemplate having extensive racing stables at the British tracks next year. The anti-American feeling on the turf is not nearly so strong as it was several years ago, but whether this is due to the absence of winning American stables or an actual dying away of the prejudice against racing men it would be hard to say. There are many of the strongest men on the British turf who would welcome such men as are mentioned, but it must be confessed that there are many others who have no use for American owners, trainers, horses or jockeys, especially if they win.

The next two great races to be run are the Cesarewitch, on October 10, at Newmarket, and the Cambridgeshire, at Houghton, on October 24. There are fifty-two acceptances for the former and sixty-one for the latter. In the early betting, St. Wulfram, Featherbed and Cats-Cradle seem to be equal favorites at 14 to 1. In the Cambridgeshire, Prince William and King Charles lead the betting at 12 to 1.

The Corinthian Association football team had such a generous reception on the other side that the Rugby Football Association has definitely concluded to send a team over to show the Americans how much finer game Rugby is than either the American college game or the Association article.

The King is having great sport with grouse, partridge and deer in the Scottish Highlands. He has shot over the Castle Grant, Advie and Tulchan moors, and has lost none of his skill with the gun. His Majesty is in unusually good health and shows no ill effects of his recent illness.

Danny Maher continues to win races with gratifying regularity. He has made the remarkable percentage of 28.51 so far this season, leading Higgs.

The All-Stationers and the Kaalas furnished the curtain-raiser at the ball park yesterday.

The Booksellers were not in it, being defeated by 12 runs to 3.

Paalahi, the Kaalas' pitcher, carried altogether too many guns for the Stationers. A plethora of stolen bases and a host of errors completed the losers' undoing.

The game was about as exciting as a snail race.

(14) DIAMOND HEADS VS. TWILIGHTS (3).

The second game resulted in the Diamond Heads having practically a walk-over in their game with the Twilights, whom they defeated by the score of 14 to 3.

The Twilights' three runs in the fourth innings were the fruit of a quartet of errors. They only obtained two hits off Chillingworth, who pitched up to his best mark. In the last innings the Twilights went plumb to pieces.

The Twilights had a big following present, and it was confidently expected that they would give the Diamond Heads a hard rub.

The Diamond Heads win the second series with a percentage of a thousand. Next Sunday the Diamond Heads will play the Metropolitans, winners of the first series, the first of a series of championship games.

The positions in the base-stealing race after yesterday's game were as follows:

Ayau, 24; W. Desha, 24; Bower, 23.
